FIRS STATUTES

Article 1 - Title, Recognitions, Headquarters and Official Languages

- (1) The name of the Federation shall be “Fédération Internationale de Roller Sports”.
- (2) FIRS is the only governing body in the world for Roller Sports.
- (3) FIRS is recognized by:
 - a) The International Olympic Committee (IOC), whose rules FIRS already abides by.
 - b) The International Sports Federations (SPORTACCORD).
 - c) The International World Games Association (IWGA).
 - d) The Pan American Sports Association (PASO).
 - e) The Olympic Council of Asia (OCA).
 - f) It may also ask for the recognition by other international organizations.
- (4) The headquarters of FIRS shall be established in the President’s country of residence or in any other place proposed by him/her, as subsequently approved by the Executive Board (EB) and ratified by the Congress. Furthermore, the President may set up operational offices wherever deemed appropriate.
- (5) The official languages of FIRS are English and Spanish. In case of language discrepancies, the English version shall prevail.

Article 2 - Objectives

- (1) The main objectives of FIRS include:
 - a) To promote and encourage the development of Roller Sports in all its possible forms all over the world.
 - b) To promote sports free from doping.
 - c) To promote and increase the international relations between the National Federations of Roller Sports and National and International Sport Organizations.
 - d) To adopt uniform rules and regulations in the competitions of the different disciplines of Roller Sports.
 - e) To organize World Championships and other international competitions.
 - f) To increase the number of Roller Sports venues and facilities throughout the world.
 - g) To establish and to agree on the annual calendar of intercontinental, continental and international competitions, in the following order:

- Olympic Games
- Continental Games
- World Games
- World Roller Games
- World Championships
- Continental Championships
- International events

- (2) FIRS acknowledges and recognizes the Statutes and the purposes of the International Olympic Committee (IOC), the IOC anti-doping rules, the WADA CODE and the International Standards of the International Sports Federations (SPORTACCORD).
- (3) FIRS requires all its members to accept and to recognize the Court of Arbitration for Sport in order to deal with the settlement of disputes. According to these Statutes, only the Federations lawfully member of FIRS shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Arbitration in seeking legal remedy against FIRS or any other Member Federation of FIRS.
- (4) The general and fundamental principles of the Olympic Charter shall be enforced, and no provisions of these Statutes and of the Regulations of FIRS shall be either in conflict with or depart from these principles.

Article 3 - Membership

- (1) Membership shall be open to National Federations and Associations, without any discrimination whatsoever based on race, religion and political affiliation or ideology. FIRS prefers to recognize only one National Federation\Association per country. Nevertheless, it will recognize additional Federations or Associations per country, provided that they manage other disciplines recognized by FIRS, but not present in the official member Federation.
- (2) To be accepted as FIRS member, Federations or Associations shall file a membership application to FIRS, including:
- I.* A copy of their Statutes.
 - II.* A duly filled-in affiliation form.
 - III.* The affiliation fee due.
 - IV.* The recognition by one's national Sports Authority.
- (3) The Executive Board has the power to authorize a provisional membership in case the requirements as per paragraph (2) are met. The provisional membership entitles new members to participate in sports activities. Conversely, the voting power is subject to the final ratification of membership by the Congress. After performing any necessary controls, the Executive Board will submit the application, equipped with its opinion, to the next Congress for ratification.
- (4) The Statutes and the Regulations of a National Federation or Continental Confederation shall not be in conflict with those of FIRS, which shall always prevail.
- (5) Statutes and Regulations of Continental Confederations must be approved by the Executive Board of FIRS.

Article 4 - Rights and duties of Member Federations

(1) Member Federations of FIRS shall have the following:

RIGHTS

- a) Participation in FIRS World Championships and competitions.
- b) Recognition by the National Olympic Committee (NOC) and by all international sports organizations as the only Roller Sports governing body in one's country.
- c) Voting right during FIRS Congresses.
- d) Each National Federation may affiliate one or more disciplines of FIRS. As regards affiliated disciplines, it shall organize a National Championship and participate in the corresponding World Championships at least every 3 years. The non-participation in World or Continental Championships of one discipline for 3 consecutive years shall entitle another sports organization of the same country to apply for the affiliation to FIRS as a Federation of such discipline.
- e) To lodge an appeal against eventual sanctions by the Executive Board of FIRS within sixty (60) days as from the notification of the sanction.

(2) Member Federations shall comply with the following:

DUTIES

- a) To contribute to achieve the objectives of FIRS.
- b) To comply with the decisions adopted by the bodies of FIRS.
- c) To organize National Championships and participate in World Championships at least every three years. Failing which the entitlement as the sole governing body of the discipline in one's country will be lost.
- d) To periodically report FIRS on one's activities.
- e) To accept out-of-competition doping tests controlled by FIRS.
- f) To pay the affiliation fees within the deadlines set.

(3) Any breach of FIRS duties and rules shall be punished - according to their severity - with the following sanctions:

I. Warning.

II. Fine.

III. Suspension.

IV. Expulsion.

Article 5 - Honorary Members

(1) Upon appointment by the Executive Board, the Congress may award the title of “Honorary Member” of FIRS to anyone deserving such recognition on the basis of outstanding services provided in favor of Roller Sports.
